

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

June 19, 2022

8:30am

Welcome to Zumbro Lutheran Church!

SUNDAY, JUNE 19, 2022, 8:30AM

Welcome to Zumbro! We are glad you have joined us today. If you are visiting, or simply haven't yet heard, our summer sermon series is called, "God in the Movies." We think this will be a lot of fun and maybe inspire you to gather with family and friends to watch movies you've missed along the way, or others you might just want to watch again. But the real question is...why the movies? Well, it could be anything, really. The idea is simple, as people who follow Jesus, do we see God in all things (including cinema)? In church we almost always start with scripture and apply it to life, but that isn't really the way it works, is it? Most of us experience things in our life and then ask questions of faith. So that's what we are doing! We are starting with the shared stories of our time, those stories found in the movies and asking the question, "Where is God in this?"

That's a good intersection with this season of the church year, which is sometimes called "Ordinary Time" -- the stories of life, growth, challenge, and opportunity that the disciples faced during their three years with Jesus. And what's more ordinary than when people have a difference of opinion? Today's movie and Bible story each feature longtime friends who part ways because their vision of the future no longer aligns. When that happens ... what do we do next?

Today we also give thanks for dads and father figures, and all who model a life of faithful support and persistence. We are grateful for who God created you to be!

BIBLE READING

ACTS 15:30-41 NRSV

³⁰So they were sent off and went down to Antioch. When they gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter. ³¹When its members read it, they rejoiced at the exhortation. ³²Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers. ³³After they had been there for some time, they were sent off in peace by the believers to those who had sent them. ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, and there, with many others, they taught and proclaimed the word of the Lord. ³⁶After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Come, let us return and visit the believers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord and see how they are doing." ³⁷Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark. ³⁸But Paul decided not to take with them one who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work. ³⁹The disagreement became so sharp that they parted company; Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus. ⁴⁰But Paul chose Silas and set out, the believers commending him to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

* La Maison dans les dunes (The House on the Dunes Suite) by Gabriel Dupont, 1878-1914

Gabriel Dupont's piano music, songs, and operas were widely known during his short life, but he was virtually forgotten by the end of the 20th century. A young professor, Dr. Bo Ties, presented Dupont's piano music at my state piano teacher's convention a couple years ago and at my local chapter meeting last year, and he is the first American to have recorded Dupont's piano suites. I was inspired to learn some of this beautiful music, which is filled with melodic and dynamic variety, lush harmonies, a wide range of intense emotional expression, dense orchestral textures, and considerable sostenuto pedal for long-held notes. Dupont suffered from tuberculosis, the cause of his early death, so he spent winters more comfortably among the dunes, pine forests, and open sea on France's southwest coast. His good friend, Maurice Dumesnil, who studied with him and premiered all of his works, said of this suite: "... It is a song of the sea uttered by a patient who once again smiles upon life as he wanders through the dunes on a bright morning, watching the white sails, the sun rays playing among the waves, the great splashes of blinding light ..." Gabriel Fauré called Dupont the most gifted musician of his generation.
